GRADE A1 - Acer Aspire One AOD150-1Bk Netbook in Black

Was 75,000 Naira Now 70,000 Naira

Summary

"Overall, the Acer Aspire One D150 is a very nice piece of kit. The screen size and great keyboard have benefited usability, resulting in a well-rounded netbook to satisfy most demands. - What Laptop 2009

If you want a laptop that you can easily take anywhere, or just a second laptop for when the kids are hogging the family PC, the Acer Aspire One D150 is worthy of serious consideration.

Weighing in at only 1.1 8kg and with a 10.1" CrystalBrite screen with 1024x600 resolution this portable Netbook is sure to make you wonder how you ever managed to lug a standard laptop around.

The powerful Intel Atom N280 Processor gives you fantastic performance in an incredibly small package and is designed specifically for incredibly low power consumptions. The 1GB RAM installed works in conjunction with the Atom processor so the Acer One runs smoothly.

Also, the 160GB Hard Drive means that this model has storage capacity to rival many of its larger competitors and with Windows XP Home preinstalled you can be productive, entertained and connected all the time.

The D150 is also WiFi enabled and has the added bonus of a 0.3 CrystalEye webcam so you can easily keep in touch with loved ones absolutely free. It also features 3 USB ports and a 5-in-1 card reader making it ideal for uploading and transferring data.

If it's an ultra-portable laptop you need without compromising on performance, you can't go wrong with the Aspire One D150.
